

Marriage of Miss Helen Gould and Finley J. Shepard Will be Notable Event of This Week.

Conservatory at Lyndhurst, where flowers for wedding are grown.

FINLEY J. SHEPARD.

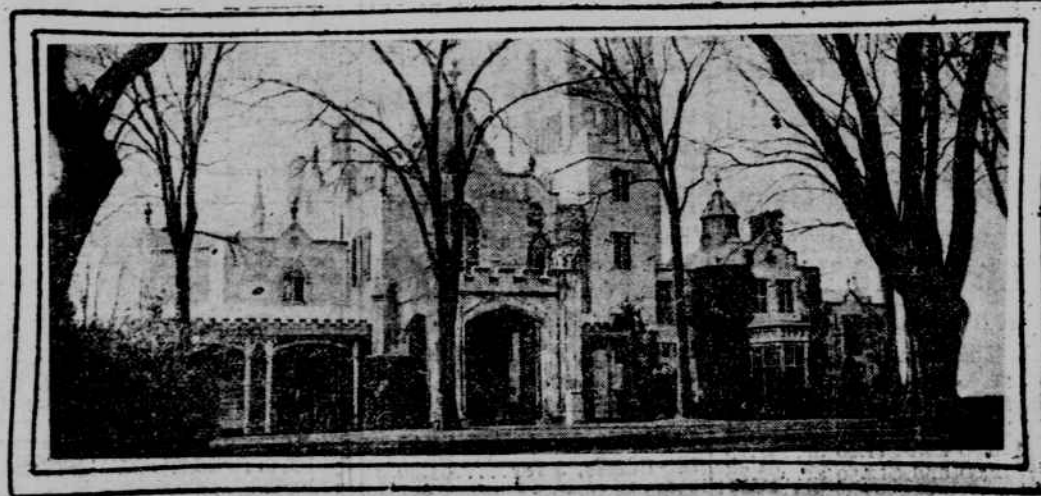

MISS HELEN M. GOULD.

Corner of library in Lyndhurst, where marriage will be solemnized.

REV. DANIEL RUSSELL, who will perform ceremony.

Lyndhurst, country home of Miss Gould, at Tarrytown, where she will be married.

DOROTHY AND HELEN GOULD, daughters of Frank J. Gould, flower girls.

NO ONE IS CHOSEN YET
FOR WILSON CABINET

President-Elect Repeats Statement That He Has Made No Selections.

EXPECTS NONE TO DECLINE

Hopes Eustis Will Propose Some Substitute for Inaugural Ball.

Princeton, N. J., January 18.—President-Elect Wilson reiterated to-night that he had made absolutely no decision as to the personnel of his Cabinet, and added that, thus far, he had not consciously conferred with any prospective candidates.

"I wouldn't do that," he said, "until I had finally made up my mind to pick a man. I haven't consciously conferred with any future Cabinet members," and added as an afterthought, "though I might have consulted with some men whom I might subsequently choose."

Mr. Wilson again expressed his belief that it was unlikely any of the men whom he selects for his Cabinet will decline to accept the portfolio offered them. It has been suggested to him that many men were loath to give up their business to enter the Cabinet. He said he realized the sacrifices that were necessary sometimes.

"A Cabinet position, too," he remarked, "is a very responsible one, where you do not get very much credit for your successes and catch it hard for your failures."

He anticipated little delay, he said, in getting suggestions from such men as he might choose for the various portfolios, and said that not until he had made up a complete slate would he begin to consult those whom he had picked out.

When Mr. Wilson was informed to-night that people in Washington were taking it for granted that a popular reception will be substituted for the inaugural ball, he said he had expected suggestions along that line.

"I assumed," he said, "that something would be substituted. I rather hoped that Mr. Eustis would lay some plan before me."

William C. Cokeran Knatts, the inaugural chairman, was reported to have mailed his reply to-day to the Governor's letter recommending elimination of the ball. The Governor said he had not yet received it and probably would

DRUGS HIDDEN IN POST CARDS

Accidental Discovery of Source From Whence Supply Comes to Convicts.

Ossining, N. Y., January 18.—The accidental dropping of a weight has cleared up a mystery which has been puzzling the wardens of Sing Sing prison from the time of Warden Sage down to John S. Kennedy, the incumbent.

The weight in question showed how drugs like opium, morphine, cocaine, in powder form, and other things get to the convicts. The discovery will be of benefit to the wardens of every other prison of the State and to keepers of city prisons like the Tombs in New York.

It has been shipped in picture post cards. Further, than that, from investigations already adopted by Warden Kennedy, it appears that as far as the New York supply is concerned one woman has been the principal manufacturer, having a large stock of drugged postcards on hand, which was known to the friends of men in prison who must have drugs.

No one thought anything of it when the postal card came manifested itself in the prison five or six years ago, because the convicts keep pretty well abreast of the times.

Some of the cards were movable, the embossing being prominent and large. The mail that arrived one morning a week or more ago contained several scores of these cards and all were taken to the proper official to be examined, as is the rule. The man sat at his desk, the cards before him. In some way or other, either a weight or a book dropped on one of the largest post cards in such a manner that the edge of it struck on the edge of the embossing, cutting a hole. To the surprise of the man at the desk, a tiny speck of white dropped before him. He picked it up. It looked like the segment of a small morphine pill. He took it to the prison physician and such it proved to be.

The embossing was ripped loose and the hollow space of it was found to be filled with more morphine pills. A goodly number of them a half grain in strength and concentrated.

An examination of every other embossed postal card in the batch showed that two-thirds of them had some kind of drug in them, enough to last a friend until the next postal card was received.

The examination has convinced the wardens that the convicts of all prisons

TURKS WILL NOT YIELD TO DEMAND

Porte Will Fight to Retain its Ancient Capital.

REPLY TO POWERS
HAS BEEN DRAFTED

Balkan Allies Will Wait Till Middle of Week; Then Armistice Will Be Denounced and Hostilities Resumed—Turkish Fleet Put to Flight by Greeks.

London, January 18.—Turkey's decision, as indicated by dispatches from Constantinople to-night, refusing to cede Adrianople and the Aegean Islands, it is believed here will lead to a resumption of the Turkish-Balkan war within a week.

The Balkan allies, after considering the whole situation among themselves earlier in the day, already had decided to wait until the middle of next week for the answer of the Porte to the joint note of the powers, and if then the reply was not received or was unsatisfactory, to address a communication to the Turkish delegation in a form of a definite ultimatum, allowing Turkey forty-eight or seventy-two hours for a final decision.

Should Turkey, at that time, be unable or unwilling to come to the allies' terms, the Balkan plenipotentiaries decided that a rupture of the peace conference was inevitable. Sofia, Belgrade and Cetinje would denounce the armistice and four days later the war would be resumed.

The allies do not admit, or to be more exact, do not see the possibility of such proposals from Turkey at the powers' subject and do not admit of a discussion, unless the Porte openly declares its readiness to give up Adrianople. So far, instructions of the Bulgarian delegates are categorical on this subject and do not admit of a discussion of the proposal that Turkey retain Adrianople even to the dismantling of the fortifications or continuing negotiations on other conditions, leaving the question of Adrianople to be disposed of last.

All Support Bulgaria.

Servia, Montenegro and Greece all support Bulgaria in this attitude. The success of Bulgaria would mean an easier accomplishment of their wishes, especially in the case of Greece, which in the conquest of Adrianople by Bulgaria sees the Greek occupation of Saloniki less likely to be disputed. In addition, the allies feel that the time will never be more favorable for them to act.

From the reports received, it is evident that the Turkish resources are

PHIPPS DOES NOT REMEMBER TAFT

Tells President He Fails to Recall His Face.

THEN THEY HAVE LAUGH TOGETHER

Incident Occurs As Taft is on Way to Dinner in Waldorf. To-Morrow He Goes to New Haven, Where It Is Likely He Will Resign From Yale Corporation.

New York, January 18.—As President Taft was entering the Waldorf apartments in the Waldorf to-night on his way to the private dinner given by George C. Boldt, he met Henry Phipps in the corridor.

The President smiled and put out his hand. "How do you do, Mr. Phipps?" he said, cordially. "How are you?"

The steel man looked at the President and without extending his own hand and with no sign of recognition, said: "I don't believe I recall your face. I don't believe I have met you."

The President laughed and said that he thought if Mr. Phipps would exercise his memory he would recall him.

There was a minute's pause. Mr. Phipps grasped the situation, put out his own hand and joined the President in the laugh.

May Resign from Corporation.

New Haven, Conn., January 18.—According to Yale officials to-night, President Taft, when he comes here on Monday to attend the January meeting of the Yale Corporation, will consider the question of resigning from the corporation, as he will soon take up his duties as Kent professor in the Yale law school and it has occurred to him, so it was given out to-night, that it would not seem just right for him to remain on the corporation and also be a professor in the university.

If he remained on the corporation he would be in the position of practically passing judgment on his own faculty work.

Mrs. Taft will come to New Haven with the President, and they will look over some of the local residences that have been picked out as the future home of the Taft family, when the President comes here for his law school work next September.

Perry's Victory Celebrated.

New York, January 18.—The centenary of Perry's victory at the battle of Lake Erie was celebrated by the Ohio Society's twenty-seventh annual dinner, held to-night at the Waldorf. President Taft was the guest of honor, but the President had a previous dinner engagement with George C. Boldt, and although right under the same roof with the Ohio folks, was unable to join them before 10 o'clock. President William S. Hawkes, of the society, recited the story of the battle, and then introduced Richard President

BAR TRUST SHIPS
FROM USING CANAL

Bill to That End Is Introduced in House.

FIRST RESULT OF PRESENT HEARING

Evidence Said to Prove That Foreign Steamships Carrying American Commerce Are Guilty of Every Charge Against Them—Defense of Rebates and Pools

Washington, January 18.—The first result of the investigation of the so-called shipping investigation trust by the House Merchant Marine Committee to-day was a bill by Representative Humphrey, of Washington, to bar from the Panama Canal all American or foreign vessels in "combinations and conferences."

Witnesses have told the committee that practically all vessels in the American Atlantic coastwise trade operate in agreement, and that the foreign lines between New York and South America, South Africa, Australia, Japan, China, the Philippines, and India, have rate and sailing date agreements and rebate and pooling arrangements. The evidence already produced at these hearings, declared Representative Humphrey, "has fully demonstrated that the foreign steamships which carry our commerce are guilty of every charge made against them. The United States is a mere way station for these foreign-owned lines, and the evidence has also developed that these foreign combines intend to monopolize trade through the Panama Canal."

Defense Trust Methods.

Defense of rebating, pooling arrangements, and rate agreements in ocean freight trade, featured the testimony of Herbert C. Barber, president of the Barber Company, of New York, to-day before the House shipping trust committee.

Mr. Barber told the committee yesterday that lines represented by his company in the trade between New York and South America, South Africa, China, Japan and the Philippines were among those operating under rate agreement, having pool arrangements in some instances and giving rebates to the United States trade. He said to-day that rebates by his company were nothing more than discounts to shippers who entered into long term agreements.

The committee heard from Joseph T. Lilly, of Norton & Co., of New York, more about rate and sailing date conferences, and pooling agreements between lines in the trade between New York and South Africa, Australia, Japan, China, the Philippines and India. Some lines represented by his firm, the witness said, were in these conferences.

M. Bouvier, president of the W. R. Grace Company, New York, told the committee 35 per cent of the trade between New York and the west coast of South America was carried at the same rates. He could not remember when

HELEN GOULD TO HAVE VERY QUIET WEDDING

CABELL REFUSES TO BE EXAMINED

Backed by Secretary MacVeagh, He Declines to Answer Questions.

Washington, January 18.—Further complications are threatened in the fight between United States District Judge Boyd, of Greensboro, N. C., and Royal E. Cabell, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, in an alleged whiskey fraud case in North Carolina, by the commissioner's refusal to-day to submit to direct or cross-examination before United States Commissioner Hitt, of this city, who was ordered by Judge Boyd to take Mr. Cabell's deposition.

The commissioner's attitude was based upon written directions of Secretary MacVeagh that he offer the court without question as to its authority a certified copy of the Treasury Department's record in the case and decline to answer questions in connection with it. The case, which is directed against D. C. Foster, a distiller, and S. Glenn Williams, said to have been the purchaser of the whiskey in question, also is being investigated by the House Committee on Expenditures in the Treasury Department.

The pending issue in court involves an order of Commissioner Cabell that the whiskey, now at Williams, N. C., be transferred to a general bonded warehouse at Louisville, Ky. Judge Boyd enjoined the removal and appointed a master to take testimony.

They Advised Action.

By the court's order, Commissioner Hitt was authorized to take the depositions of Mr. Cabell and other officials of the Internal Revenue Bureau. Fletcher Mattox, solicitor of internal revenue, P. S. Talbot, chief of the law division, and W. Hubbard, Jr., chief of the assessment division, summoned before Commissioner Hitt, testified that they had advised the Commissioner

No Ostentation About Her Marriage to Finley J. Shepard.

FROCK COSTS BUT $1,000

Ceremony Will Be Performed Wednesday at Her Country Home.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

New York, January 18.—For an unduly rich young woman, Miss Helen Gould will have the simplest wedding that has taken place in these parts in a long while. As has already been formally announced, her wedding to Finley J. Shepard, assistant to the president of the Missouri-Pacific system, will be solemnized at Miss Gould's beautiful country place, "Lyndhurst," at Tarrytown-on-the-Hudson, next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

"Lyndhurst" is referred to as Miss Gould's semi-country home, but Tarrytown, where Washington, Irving lived and dreamed and worked, and where he fixed forever in American literature the legends of Sleepy Hollow, and the placid Tappan was hardly more than a suburb of New York.

While "Lyndhurst" is a farm of 60 acres with a wonderful view of the Hudson, and while it is true that there Miss Gould is very much of a dairy maid, her real country place is away back in the Catskills in the sleepy old town of Roxbury, where her father was born and reared.

A part of the Roxbury farm to-day is the original Gould farm, but to it have been added many acres, and where he them by Jay Gould himself and many more by his favorite daughter. So it happens that when Miss Gould goes to her country place in the summer, she goes to Roxbury.

Dr. Russell to Marry Them.

The wedding service will be read by the Rev. Daniel Russell, pastor of the nearby First Presbyterian Church at Irvington. The wedding will be simple and agrarian. Miss Gould's New York pastor is the Rev. Anthony J. Evans, D. D., but Miss Gould apparently believes in wedding harmony with as in colors, hence a country person for a country wedding.

Unless present plans change, the ceremony will be performed in the